

HIGH POINT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Section – Operations

Policy 507 –Membership Service Denial Policy

Initial Board Approval 08/20/2018

Revisions Approved 01. 03/19/2024

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The Board of Directors recognizes that the Credit Union's outstanding reputation is due in large part to the loyalty, commitment, and continued efforts of its employees. The Board is committed to fair treatment of the employees of the Credit Union with the respect they deserve and is committed to maintaining a work place free from any type of abuse. This policy is not enacted to restrict the rights or freedoms of anyone, but rather to address certain unacceptable conduct to assure the rights and protection of the Credit Union's employees.

The Board of Directors has determined that the privilege of Credit Union services available to members must be reserved for members who are in “good standing” with the Credit Union. This policy is also enacted to address standards of member conduct to assure the rights and protection of the Credit Union’s employees, volunteers, and members.

In the event that any member or non-member engages in any type of abusive conduct towards a Credit Union member or a Credit Union employee or volunteer engaged in Credit Union business, the CEO, or his or her designee, is authorized to apply appropriate remedial measures against such individual and is hereby authorized to impose sanctions against any member who engages in any type of abusive conduct.

In that regard, any or all of the following sanctions may be imposed against a member who has engaged in abusive conduct:

- Denial of all services other than the right to maintain a share account and the right to vote at annual meetings and special meetings.
- Denial of services that involve personal contact with Credit Union employees.
- Denial of access to the Credit Union premises.
- Taking any other action deemed necessary under the circumstances that is not expressly precluded by the Federal Credit Union Act, New York State Statutes, NCUA Rules and Regulations, or the Credit Union's Bylaws.
- Expulsion from membership following a vote of the membership at a special meeting.

For purposes of this policy, "abusive conduct" includes, but is not limited to, any of the bullet points below under “abusive behavior”.

In the case of continued abusive behavior, a member shall be subject to expulsion from the Credit Union at a special meeting of the members or at the next annual meeting of the membership.

These limitations shall not prohibit a member from exercising his or her rights under federal or state law or regulation.

MEMBER CONDUCT AND LIMITATION OF SERVICES

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

“Abusive behavior” includes, but is not limited to, any of the following conduct:

- ❑ Any type of harassment, including age, sexual, ethnic, or racial harassment; making racial or ethnic slurs, engaging in sexual conduct; making sexual overtures, or any other basis protected by federal, state or local laws.

- ❑ Any other act which endangers the safety, health, or well-being of another person or which is of sufficient magnitude that causes disruption of business at the Credit Union This list is not exhaustive and is used only as an example of types of behavior that may be viewed as “abusive” by the Credit Union.

This policy shall extend to any member “not in good standing” who seeks member services whether directly or indirectly through a Credit Union account. This policy shall also apply to any person who has access to Credit Union services directly or indirectly through a member who is “not in good standing” with the Credit Union.

A member will not be “in good standing” with this Credit Union if:

- ❑ The member fails to comply with the terms and conditions of any lawful obligation with this Credit Union and causes the Credit Union to suffer a “monetary loss” as defined below;
- ❑ The member manipulates or otherwise abuses Credit Union services or products to the detriment of the Credit Union’s membership; and/or
- ❑ The member engages in “abusive behavior,” as defined below, or otherwise injures any person or damages any property while on Credit Union premises or at any Credit Union function.

The determination of whether a member is in “good standing” with this Credit Union will be made at the sole discretion of the Chief Executive Officer and Vice Presidents of this Credit Union. Any member deemed to be “not in good standing” will be reported at the next regular board meeting.

For purposes of this policy, “not in good standing” is defined as causing the credit union a loss in excess of $50.00. Any member of High Point Federal Credit Union who has caused a loss and who either”

1. Has not voluntarily repaid the credit union for this loss, or
2. Is not in the process of voluntarily repaying the credit union for this loss, may be expelled from membership of the credit union.

Any person who has caused High Point Federal Credit Union a loss and who either:

1. Has not voluntarily repaid the credit union for this loss, or
2. Is not in the process of voluntarily repaying the credit union for this loss,
Is not eligible for membership at the credit union.

DEFINITIONS

“Member services” are hereby defined as any products or services now or hereafter provided or sponsored by the Credit Union or otherwise made available to Credit Union members, which services shall include, but are not limited to loans, deposit accounts, checking or share drafts, ATM services, online banking services, and other electronic fund transfer services.

A “monetary loss” to the Credit Union occurs when the Credit Union writes off as uncollectible any monies that the member owes, for whatever reason, to the Credit Union.

For loans: the monetary loss is defined as the principal amount of any monies owed and written off as uncollectible. The amount of the monetary loss does not include interest and expenses. By participating in a “Debt Relief” company does not relinquish their obligation to the credit union.

For shares: the monetary loss is defined as the negative balance in the share account written off as uncollectible.

For ATM/Debit Card services: Any ATM or Debit card issued by the Credit Union is the Credit Union’s property. The Credit Union may repossess/not reissue an ATM or Debit card at any time in its sole discretion without demand or notice to the member.

POLICY REVIEW

This policy will be reviewed by the board directors annually to ensure that the policy is current and complies with any changes to existing regulations and that procedures for its implementation are adequate.
